The Pennſylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

STOCKHOLM, January 16.

THO' the Authors of the Inſult committed at the Houſe of the Ruſſian Miniſter have been ſought after with the utmoſt Diligence, none have been diſcover'd, which has given Occaſion to the following Words being wrote in ſeveral Places: "It is to no Purpoſe to endeavour to diſcover who broke M. Beſtuchef's Windows: The Author of it cannot be arreſted, being no other than the wandering Ghoſt of Major Sinclair. The Court has given Orders that a Body of 10,000 Men ſhall be ready to march next Month: It's thought they will be tranſported into Finland, where there will then be 35000 of the beſt Troops in the Kingdom.

London, March 6. His Majeſty ſent a Meſſage to both Houſes of Parliament, acquainting them that he had received Propoſals for a Marriage between the Princeſs Mary, and Prince Frederick of Heſſe, Son of Prince William Landgrave of Heſſe, and Brother to the King of Sweden, which he had been pleaſed favourably to accept and agree to, and had thought proper to communicate his Intentions to them, not doubting but that an Alliance with ſo conſiderable a Proteſtant Family, would be to the general Satisfaction of all his good Subjects. Both Houſes preſented an Addreſs of Thanks for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Communication of the intended Marriage, and her Royal Highneſs had 40,000 l. Fortune given her by Parliament.

We hear that the Scheme for altering and amending the Method of impreſſing Mariners out of the Merchantmen, is, that the Owners, &c. voluntarily give up one Man in four for his Majeſty's Service, upon emergent Occaſions.

They write from Vienna, that the Velt Marſhal Count Wallis arrived at the Caſtle of Spielberg the 11th of laſt Month, where he was received by Count Sintzendorff, the Governor, with great Marks of diſtinction, the Garriſon being drawn up in Order of Battle with Drums beating. The Commandant having conducted the Velt Marſhal to the Apartment deſtin'd for him, the latter offer'd to deliver up his Sword to him, but he refus'd to take it, having had no Orders on that Head.

London, March 10 Letters from ſeveral Parts of Sweden ſay, that the Order for prohibiting the Importation of Britiſh and other Foreign Woollen Manufactures into that Kingdom, is put in Execution with the utmoſt Severity.

March 11. The young Drummers of the Foot Guards were Yeſterday practiſing the Dead March which is to be beat this Day, at the Execution of the private Centinel who is to be ſhot in Hide Park. The Priſoner is to be convey'd by Eight o'Clock in the Morning, from the Dungeon in the Savoy to the Tilt-Yard Guard Room, and is to march thence on Foot, in the Centre of a Detachment of 300 Men from the three Regiments, round by the Bird Cage Walk up Conſtitution Hill, and to the Stone in Hide Park oppoſite to Tyburn, where he is on his Knees to receive his Death.

Whitehall, March 18. Yeſterday Mrs. Stephens received the Five Thouſand Pounds Reward, aſſigned her by an Act of Parliament, on the Diſcovery of her Medicines for the Stone, and Proofs made of their Utility, Efficacy, and diſſolving Power.

March 25 By Letters from Falmouth we are inform'd, Lieutenant Pitman came in there the 17th Inſt. to impreſs Men for his Majeſty's Service, and ſays, that the Maſter of a Hamburgh Ship he met inform'd him, that there were five Spaniſh Privateers in and near the Mouth of the Channel, who ſpeak with all Ships that come in their way.

They write from Petersburg, that the Velt Marſhals Munich and Lacy, with ſeveral other Generals, and the Miniſters of the Cabinet, have had a Grand Conference at Count de Oſterman's, and that it was proviſionally reſolved that Count Munich ſhould command the Grand Army, while Count Lacy with 25,000 Men ſhould attempt a Deſcent upon Sweden; and that Orders have already been iſſued for 10,000 Men to paſs the Neva, and advance into Ruſſian Finland and Carelia.

A Spaniſh Privateer having taken 5 Coaſters off Falmouth, the Houſe of Commons addreſs'd his Majeſty, that he wou'd be pleaſed to give Directions for appointing ſuch a Number of Ships to cruize in proper Stations, for the Security and Protection of Trade, as ſhall be conſiſtent with the Defence and Protection of his Majeſty's Dominions. His Majeſty's Anſwer was as follows: "All poſſible Care has been taken in carrying on the War againſt Spain in the moſt proper and effectual Manner, and at the ſame Time for protecting the Trade of my Subjects; and you may be aſſured that the ſame Care ſhall be continued.

The Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council of London, waited on the King with an Addreſs. And they reſolved alſo to preſent Vice Admiral Vernon with the Freedom of the City in a Gold Box, out of the greateful Senſe of the Service he has done to the Trading Part of this Nation.

April 1. They write from the Groyne, that the James and Katherine, Capt. Graham, bound from Sicily to Amſterdam, was taken, with ſeveral more Engliſh Ships, in the Mouth of the Channel, by a Spaniſh Privateer, and carried into that Place. It is hoped the Sloops who are to cruize in the Chops of the Channel, will prevent the like for the future.

The City of London having preſented Admiral Vernon with his Freedom, we hear that a great Number of Citizens have reſolv'd to put in Nomination the ſaid Admiral to be one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament at the enſuing Election, as a further Proof of the Senſe they have of the eminent Service he has done to his Country in general, and to this Trading City in particular.

Boſton,

Boſton, May 19. On Tueſday laſt arrived at Nantasket from Jamaica, His Majeſty's Ship Aſtrea, Capt. Percival Commander, taken from the Spaniards at Porto Bello, and ſent here by Admiral Vernon for Maſts, and other Naval Stores for the Fleet under his Command. She is about 400 Tons, has 20 Guns, and was built at the Havana.

We hear by Capt. Fones, that Capt. Curling who ſail'd from hence in November, and was ſuppos'd to be loſt, was taken by a Spaniſh Privateer in the Channel of England and carried into Vigo.

We are inform'd by a Gentleman that came Paſſenger in Capt. Fones, that it was reported upon the Exchange the Day he left London, that ten Sail of French Ships of the Line were ſailed from Breſt, ſuppoſed to be deſign'd for the Weſt-Indies, and that Admiral Balchen was ſent with 12 Sail of Men of War to obſerve their Motions.

We alſo hear that ſeveral of the new 20 Gun Ships were launched, and that it was hop'd when they were fitted out they would ſoon clear the Engliſh Channel of Privateers.

On Thurſday laſt was launched here a fine Snow, called the Reſolution, commanded by Capt. Stocker and owned by Meſſieurs Frankland and Lightfoot; ſhe is intended as a Privateer, and is reckon'd a very fit Veſſel for that Buſineſs.

On the 1ſt Inſtant arrived at Boſton, Capt. Rimes from London, by whom from the publick Prints, we have the following Advices.

Leghorn, April 2.

THE Captain of an Engliſh Veſſel arriv'd here in ten Days from Port Mahon, reports, that he left Admiral Haddock there with fourteen Men of War; and adds, that the neceſſary Diſpoſitions were made to defend the Place with Vigour, in caſe the Spaniards ſhould think fit to beſiege the ſame, of which there is the greater Appearance, they having already landed upwards of 10,000 Men upon the Iſland of Majorca, together with ſixty Pieces of Cannon, and a large Quantity of Warlike Stores of all ſorts.

Hamburgh, April 15. Several Veſſels are daily expected here from England, in order to tranſport to Ireland ſix Daniſh Regiments of Foot, in Pay of his Britannick Majeſty. 'Tis further ſaid, that thoſe Veſſels will be follow'd by ſeveral others of the ſame Nation, to tranſport ſome Daniſh Horſe alſo into Ireland.

London, April 15. Yeſterday Sir John Norris Vice Admiral of England, received his Commiſſion at the Admiralty, appointing him Commander in Chief of all his Majeſty's Ships of War deſign'd for the Security of our Coaſts, and will this Week hoiſt his Flag on Board the Britannia, a Firſt Rate, of an Hundred Guns.

And we hear Admiral Cavendiſh will be remov'd to the Namure, a Ninety Gun Ship, which Sir John Norris had.

And that Admiral Steuart will hoiſt his Flag on Board the Elizabeth, at Portſmouth, in the Room of Admiral Cavendiſh.

On Friday laſt the Maſter of the Folkſtone Sloop ſpoke with 7 Sail of Dutch Men of War, one whereof was a 70 Gun Ship which had the Flag at the Fore Top Maſt. They bore away to the Weſt with all the Sail they could poſſibly make, and ſaid they were going to join Admiral Balchen.

At the Trade and Plantation Office they are making out an exact Account of the Paper Currency of America, in order to lay the ſame before the Houſe of Commons.

We hear that Propoſitions of Peace have been offer'd to this Court by that of Spain, which are more advantageous than any that have yet been talk'd of, the latter thereby propoſing to reimburſe the former, the Charges it has been at in the War.

BOSTON, June 2.

Yeſterday Capt. Rhymes arrived here in 6 Weeks from London, by whom we learn, That 9 Spaniſh Men of War (taking the Advantage of Admiral Haddock's Abſence) were ſail'd from Cadiz, ſuppoſed for the Weſt Indies. That Admiral Balchen with 4 Men of War was alſo ſail'd, and that he ſteer'd for Cape Finiſterre, where he was to be join'd by 5 of his Majeſty's Ships of War, &c. That 46 more Merchant Ships were ordered to be taken up for the Service of the Government. That the Breſt Squadron was not ſail'd. That the Spaniſh Privateer that had taken ſo many Veſſels upon the Coaſt of England, was taken by one of his Majeſty's Ships. And as Capt. Rhymes was coming through the Downs, he met three of our Men of War carrying in a very large Spaniſh Prize, but the Wind blowing very hard, he could not hear from whence ſhe came.

New-York, June 9. Yeſterday arrived the Ship Leguina, Capt. Phenex, in 25 Days from Jamaica, by whom we have Advice, That Admiral Vernon has bombarded the Town of Carthagena, beat down ſeveral Churches and Houſes, and done other Damages. From thence he went to Porto Bello to refit, and from thence he ſailed to the ſtrong Town of Chagre, and after ſome Time of playing his Great Guns againſt it, the Governor ſent a Flag of Truce and ſurrendred the Town, where in the Ware-Houſes he found great Riches, and brought away to Jamaica 2850 Serons of Cocoa, 280 Bags of Vigonio Wool, 1480 Casks of Jeſuits Bark, ſundry Caſes of Goods, the Contents unknown; with much other Goods, to the Value of one hundred Thouſand Pounds ſterling. He alſo brought away 22 Braſs Cannon, 25 Braſs Shot, 135 Iron Shot, &c. &c. That he is deſign'd upon another Expedition, and has ſent out Commodore Brown, and 4 Men of War, to wait at a certain Place till he comes to them.

PHILADELPHIA.

We hear from Annapolis in Maryland, that on Saturday laſt, about 10 in the Evening, after 7 or 8 Weeks Illneſs, died there the Honourable ALEXANDER SPOTSWOOD, Eſq; in an advanc'd Age. He ſerved many Campaigns in the late Wars, under the Duke of Marlborough, as Quarter-Maſter General of the Queen's Armies. After the Peace he was made Governor of Virginia, and ſince Poſtmaſter General of all the King's Dominions in America; and by a late Appointment, General and Commander in Chief of the Forces to be raiſed in the Plantations for the Expedition againſt the Spaniſh Weſt-Indies. The Loſs of a Gentleman of his diſtinguiſh'd Bravery, Skill and Experience in military Affairs, at this critical Juncture, muſt be regretted by all who have at Heart the Intereſt and Glory of Great Britain.

During the Seſſion of the Presbyterian Synod, which began on the 28th of the laſt Month, and continued to the third of this Inſtant, there were no leſs than 14 Sermons preached on Society-Hill to large Audiences, by the Rev. Meſſrs. the Tennents, Mr. Davenport, Mr. Rowland and Mr. Blair, beſides what were deliver'd at the Presbyterian and Baptiſt Meetings, and Expoundings and Exhortations in private Houſes. The Alteration in the Face of Religion here is altogether ſurprizing. Never did the People ſhow ſo great a Willingneſs to attend Sermons, nor the Preachers greater Zeal and Diligence in performing the Duties of their Function. Religion is become the Subject of moſt Converſations. No Books are in Requeſt but thoſe of Piety and Devotion; and inſtead of idle Songs and Ballads, the People are every where entertaining themſelves with Pſalms, Hymns and Spiritual Songs. All which, under God, is owing to the ſucceſsful Labours of the Reverend Mr. Whitefield.

On Sunday laſt, the Reverend Mr. Gilbert Tennent, preached four Times, viz at Seven in the Morning on Society Hill, at 10 in the Preſbyterian Meeting Houſe, at 3 Afternoon in the Baptiſt Meeting Houſe, and at Seven in the Evening on Society Hill again; at which laſt Sermon 'tis thought there were near 8000 People.
